

We can use TORQUE when closing doors by pushing far away from the hinge. Draw an arrow where you should push on the door to use the least amount of force.

We can use TORQUE when loosening bolts by pulling far away from the bolt, down the handle. Draw an arrow when you should pull on the wrench's handle to use the least amount of force.

